Day 10 – Tuesday April 19 [Passover] (bus) to Jordan

We drive south to Eilat to cross the border and have lunch at Aqaba in Jordan. Once across the border we drive north from Aqaba to Wadi Mousa (Petra). The town of Wadi Mousa is situated just outside the abandoned Nabatean city of Petra. A large town with good facilities, it provides a convenient base for exploring this World Heritage Site.

Overnight: Taybet Zaman Hotel & Resort (Wadi Mousa) 011-962-215-0111? no website

Nestled against the mountains, its quiet location offers tranquility in a busy town. The hotel is a restored village with rooms built in one-storey blocks on narrow streets, these are decorated in traditional Jordanian style. It has a small souk as well as an indoor pool and views from the restaurant of the mountains which surround Petra.

Day 11 – Wednesday April 20 (bus & walking) Petra

We have a full day in Petra with morning guided tour then free afternoon. Walking through the narrow gorge of the siq brings you to the Treasury, the first of the hundreds of facades carved into the desert cliffs by the Nabateans. We continue through the city, exploring tombs, Roman ruins and temples before heading up to the Monastery, an amazing site with its facade towering above you. Our local guide will provide us with information on this ancient city before leaving us to explore independently this afternoon.

Overnight: Taybet Zaman

Day 12 – Thursday April 21 (bus) Kerak, Madaba, Amman

We drive from Wadi Mousa (Petra) to Kerak, a small, bustling market town encircled by large stone walls. The Crusader castle of Kerak is one of the finest in the Middle East. It took 20 years for the Crusaders to build and soon became one of Saladin's favourite artillery points. After visiting the castle, we continue on to Madaba, a Christian town famous for its mosaics and affectionately known as the 'City of Mosaics'. The 6th Century mosaic map of the Holy Land is the most impressive and we will see it in St. Georges Church. We continue to Mount Nebo which is believed to be the burial site of Moses. The small Byzantine church was built by early Christians and is now one of the most popular holy sites in Jordan. We may also visit the most accepted site of the Baptism at Bethany-Beyond-the-Jordan We end the day in Amman, the capital of Jordan, built across several hills. Evidence of its ancient beginnings can be found in the citadel, whilst the downtown still houses a Roman Theatre which is built into the hillside.

Day 17 – Tuesday April 26 (bus) Pergamum

We cross the Dardanelles Straits to the Gallipoli (Gelibolu) Peninsula and Canakkale. We visit the ancient site of Troy where, according to legend, Ulysses devised the Wooden Horse strategy and thereby ended the 10 year Trojan War. Nine ruined cities, one on top of the other, have been uncovered, going back some 5000 years. From here we will continue to the Greco-Roman remains of Pergamum (now the typical Turkish town of Bergama).

Overnight: Hotel (Pergamum) details not known

Day 18 – Wednesday April 27 (bus) Ephesus

We drive to Ephesus – once visited by Mark Anthony and Cleopatra, and also by the evangelist St. Paul (which inspired the Epistle to the Ephesians), this famous old Asia Minor seaport reached its zenith in the 2nd century AD. Efes became one of the main cultural and economic centres of the ancient world until it went into decline after the 7th century. We will also visit Mary's House, situated between Ephesus and Seljuk which is where the Virgin Mary is believed to have lived out her days.
