Travel Medical Insurance is mandatory for all participants. You must declare any pre-existing medical conditions to your insurers and ensure you receive written confirmation that any pre-existing medical conditions are fully insured. You are required to have emergency medical evacuation plus medical expenses.

Insurance Documentation – A copy of your insurance policy detailing policy validity dates, cover and names of those insured, must be carried on safari and shown to the safari leader at the start of the safari.

Passports – All nationalities are required to have at least 6 months validity in their passport (from the time of returning home) in order to enter Kenya.

Visas – are required and must be applied for online at evisa.go.ke. (See Useful Information.)

Health, fitness and ability – It is imperative for everyone's sake that you are fit and healthy enough to be able to participate in the safari. Vaccinations (including Covid 19) and anti-malarial protocol are optional. Enquire at your local Travel Clinic.

Names – Most airlines now require first and surnames in order to issue flight tickets and may refuse boarding to any that do not exactly match up with the relevant passport. Please ensure that all names provided are complete and correct (no nicknames or abbreviations) and exactly as per passport.

Booking conditions – Deposit payments made will be held until the minimum number of participants for each safari vehicle is confirmed. Only if the safari must be cancelled can full refunds be made, including the deposit. No refund can be made for pre-paid flights. Be sure your travel insurance covers this possibility.

Photography – Sophia Services reserves the right to use photographs that may include participants for promotional purposes..
