Travel Medical Insurance is mandatory for all participants. You must declare any pre-existing medical conditions to your insurers and ensure you receive written confirmation that any pre-existing medical conditions are fully insured. You are required to have emergency medical evacuation plus medical expenses.

Insurance Documentation – A copy of your insurance policy detailing policy validity dates, cover and names of those insured, must be carried with you and shown to the group leader at the start of the trip.

Passports – All nationalities are required to have at least 6 months validity in their passport (from the time of returning home) in order to enter Namibia.

Visas – are not necessary for Canadian, American and Kenyan nationals.

Health, fitness and ability – It is imperative for everyone's sake that you are fit and healthy enough to be able to participate in this event. Vaccinations (including Covid 19) and anti-malarial protocol are optional. Enquire at your local Travel Clinic.

Names – Most airlines now require first and surnames in order to issue flight tickets and may refuse boarding to any that do not exactly match up with the relevant passport. Please ensure that all names provided are complete and correct (no nicknames or abbreviations) and exactly as per passport.

Booking conditions – Deposit payments made will be held until the minimum number of participants is confirmed. Only if the trip must be cancelled can full refunds be made, including the deposit. No refund can be made for pre-paid flights. Be sure your travel insurance covers this possibility.

Photography – Sarnia reserves the right to use photos of participants for website promotional purposes.
